

Homework Projects – Autumn Term

Blast Off!

Communication, Listening Listen to some space/alien stories. Film or take a photo of yourself enjoying or reviewing them. Bring your favourite space book in to share and discuss with your class.	Communication, Imagining Draw a storyboard or write a space themed story.	Questioning Use the internet and books to find out about a planet.	Appreciation, Questioning If you could interview and ask Tim Peake/ Neil Armstrong some questions, what would you ask him? What do you think he would say?
Imagining Draw a badge for a new space mission. 	Imagining, Teamwork Design, make or describe your own rocket or spaceship.	Imagining Create your own new planet. What does it look like? Does anyone live there?	Imagining, teamwork  Bake some meteor rock cakes - http://www.kidspot.com.au/kitchen/recipes/meteor-shower-rock-cakes-1279

Homework to be completed and in school by Monday 11th November